FOR RELEASE THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13

Mrs. Geneva T. Penland has been appointed assistant professor of education to teach courses in library science at Montana State University, according to MSU President H. K. Newburn.

Mrs. Penland taught last year at Wisconsin State Teachers College, Eau Claire. She was teacher-librarian at Greenfield, Wis., high school from 1958 to 1960, and she has taught in public schools in Virginia, Maryland and Montana. From 1952 to 1956 she was engaged in classified work for the National Security Agency.

She received a B. A. in 1949 from the College of Great Falls and an M. A. in 1958 from the University of Wisconsin. She has done advanced work at George Washington University and Maryland University and holds a special certificate from the National Security Agency.
